Join Our Community!

As Canton grows with the addition of large-scale companies and smaller start-ups, an increasing number of families and individuals are moving to the area. This growth provides a great opportunity for companies to serve a bustling community without losing that small-town feel. Not only is The Mill a great place to do business, the family-feel of the tenant relationships really makes The Mill stand out for owners and employees. At The Mill on Etowah, we are bringing the Main Street-feel into the future of business.
